About Bucharest

With a population of approximately 2.100.000 citizens, Bucharest is situated in the south-eastern part of Romania, near the border of Bulgaria and the Danube river. With the mountains and the seaside at similar distances from Bucharest, of approximately 2 hours by car, it can be seen as a perfect spot for starting a fun holiday. The number of tourists that visit Bucharest has increased every year in the previous 6 years, reaching in 2017 a total higher than 1.800.000 visitors. And this also due to a huge variety of things to do in Bucharest and nearby areas, and the high number of praising articles abroad.

How to arrive

Bucharest has two international airports: Henri Coandă International Airport, located 16.5 km north of the Bucharest city center, in the town of Otopeni, Ilfov.

Aurel Vlaicu International Airport is Bucharest's business and VIP airport. It is situated only 8 km north of the Bucharest city center.

Snagov is 20km away from Henri Coanda airport, and 24km away from Aurel Vlaicu airport.
